

XVII ASECUCU Conference

"Post-COVID19 in SEE and Black Sea Region - Responses towards SDGs"

Date and location

13-14 September 2021,
Belgrade, Serbia, University of Belgrade, Faculty of Economics

Theme

In honour of its twenty-fifth anniversary, ASECU organizes its XVII Conference. The COVID19 crisis accelerated a procedure of structural transformations towards a new economic/social environment which needs to be further explored.

The governments all over the world, exposed to huge external shocks, are ultimately forced to build up a resilient and sustainable economic/social system capable to answer on different challenges. Furthermore, the risk that the COVID19 pandemic will push countries further back from SDGs 2030 is evident.

To understand various aspects of pandemic crisis in the South and East European Countries (SEE) and the Black Sea Region and overall influence of the crisis on economic and social systems, the ASECU organizes the Conference "Post-COVID19 in SEE and Black Sea Region - Responses towards SDGs" in September 2021. The Conference will be hosted by the Faculty of Economics, University of Belgrade – Serbia.

Objectives

The Conference will bring together leading experts both from CEE countries and Black Sea Region and around the world. The outcome of the discussions will contribute scientific and policy debate in the region regarding the open Post-COVID19 questions and challenges. Both empirical and methodological research papers are equally welcome. Selected papers presented at the conference will be published in South-Eastern Europe Journal of Economics and Economic Annals.
