Who was Ștefan cel Mare or Stephen the Great?

- Stephen the Great (Romanian: Ștefan cel Mare; was Voivode (or Prince) of Moldavia from 1457 to 1504.
- Stephen had been a defender of Christianity and protector of his people.
- He had built churches during his reign.
- Stephen received the sobriquet "Great" shortly after his death. Sigismund I of Poland and Lithuania referred to him as "that great Stephen" in 1534.
- After the Romanian Orthodox Church canonized him in 1992, he is venerated as "Stephen the Great and Holy" (Ștefan cel Mare și Sfânt).

Where is Suceava?

Suceava County is located in the north – eastern part of Romania, in Bukovina – one of the most beautiful historical regions of the country.

The area is an important tourist destination due to the beautiful nature and the painted monasteries. Some of them are included on the list of the world patrimony UNESCO (Humor, Moldovița, Voroneț, Sucevița).
